

Introduction of new member of Governing Board

János Gerő

János Gerő is an experienced real estate professional with over three decades of experience in the real estate market and corporate transactions.

He received his first degree in 1993 from the Budapest University of Economics and Business Administration in finance and corporate valuation. He then furthered his expertise at the postgraduate real estate professional training at Nottingham Trent University in 1996. In 1999, he became one of the first Hungarian members of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS), one of the most respected international real estate professional organizations in the world.

He began his professional career at the international real estate consulting firm DTZ Hungary, and was appointed the company's first local managing director in 1996.

In 2003, he joined WING Zrt., one of Hungary's leading real estate developers and investors. He worked as the company's Deputy CEO for Transactions and Business Development until April 2026. In this role, he led the implementation of several large-scale acquisitions, developments and strategic partnerships.

He is the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of NEO Property Services Zrt. and Wingholding Zrt.

Throughout his career, he has uniquely combined deep real estate market expertise with strategic thinking and corporate governance experience.
